ELABORATE AFFAIR.

The Wesley Entertainment Comprises Splendid Local Talent.

150 PERFORMERS DIRECTED BY

Mrs. H. E. Monroe, of Philadelphia, will Render the Great Historical Entertainment at the Ope ra House Thursday and Friday Evenings - Eighteenth Century Costumes and Stereopticon Views will Intensify the Realistic Portrayal.

As the time approaches interest increases in the production of the grand historical entertainment, "The Life and Times of Rev. John Wesley," to be given at the Opera House, Thursday and Friday evenings, September 16 and 17, with matinee Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock. The entertainment is under the auspices of the Zane street street M. E. church, and will be rendered under the direction of Mrs. Harriet E. Monroe, of Philadelphia, whose ability in this line is famous. She will be assisted by well known local talent, 150 sisted by well known local talent, 150 taking part.

This promises to be one of the most successful and elaborate affairs of this kind ever given in Wheeling, and the performers have undergone constant rehearsing for some time. They will be drilled personally by Mrs. Monroe to-morrow evening, she arriving in Wheeling some time during the day. Mrs. Monroe is a renowned lecturer, and her remarks elucidating the entertainment will be aided by many superb stereopticon views.

Embraced in the local ensemble is some of the best talent procurable. The costumes worn will be typical of the 18th century, and in fact, the scenes and embellishments will serve almost to transplant the present age. The entertainment will be very instructive as well as interesting. Seats went on sale at House's music store yesterday morning, and the sales so far have been very rapid. The admission charged is comparatively low.

There have been several of the participants photographed in costume, and their pictures are displayed around the city in several store windows, attracting much attention. The steropoticist is Frank Witner; class instructor, Miss M. M. Stewart; planist, Miss Lida Ramp; orchestra, Wheeling Symphony orchestra, Dr. McClure director. The other performers and the characters portayed are as follows:

audited and recommended to council for payment.

Mr. Nesbitt, the Fifth ward member, informed the committee that he had asked for bids for certain repairs at the Hook and Ladder house, and wanted them opened and the contract given. This course met with some opposition, it being suggested that the Fifth ward man had acted without authority from the committee. The latter responded that he had acted in the belief that he was hastening consideration of the matter, the repairs being necessary. After considerable discussion, in the course of which it was suggested that the committee has not the money with which to make the contemplated rethe committee has not the money with which to make the contemplated repairs, it was moved that a committee of three be named by Chairman McLure, which would make an investigation as to the repairs necessary at the Fifth ward house and at the Atlantic (Fourth ward) building, where Mr. Zwicker says an excellent telescopic view of the heavens can be had most any clear night, The motion prevailed and the chairman named Messrs, Baird, Nesbitt and Gartley. Then it was suggested that the chairman and clerk make the investigation, at the same time looking up the matter of funds for the proposed improvements, but the chairman told the committee he would be out of town for three weeks, so this was a tack that failed.

At this point Mr. Nesbitt renewed his motion that the bids be opened and the contract awarded. The vote was two for the motion, Messrs. Nesbitt and Gartley, and three against, Messrs. Baird, Hahne and Zwicker.

THE RIVER.

Steam Navigation Board.

Much interest is being taken by Pitts-burgh rivermen in the meetings of the burgh rivermen in the meetings of the national board of steam navigation, at the Fifth Avenue hotel, New York, on Tuesday. Among other matters to be considered will be an amendment to the steam navigation laws, preventing the steam navigation laws, preventing the seizure and attachment of steam vessels. A bill to this effect was introduced in the last session of Congress, but failed to pass. The owners of boats want a law providing that a bond be filed with the various United States marshals in the districts through whitin the vessels navigate. This bond shall be deemed sufficient for the satisfaction of any libel which may be lodged against the owner of any vessel. It is also provided that no vessel shall be seized or attached for any sum less than the approved bond. A memorial to Congress will be adopted at Tuesday's meeting and the measures will be strongly urged.—Pittsburgh Press.

Young Womanhood.

Sweet young girls! How often they develop into worn, listless, and hopeless women because mother has not improssed upon them the importance of attending to physical development. No woman is exempt from physical weak. nessand periodical pain, and young girls just budding into woman-hood should be guided physical-ly as well as morally.

If you know of any young lady who is sick and needs motherly advice, ask her to address Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., and tell every detail of her symp-toms, surroundings and occupations, She will get advice from a source that has no rival in experience of women's ills. Tell her to keep nothing back.
